

Marty Marcolongo

Marty Marcolongo is the Director of Alumni Relations for the United States Air Force Academy Association of Graduates (USAFA AOG).

Marty is a 1988 graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy, where he graduated with a B.S. in International Affairs. After his first assignment at the Intelligence Officer School in San Angelo, TX, he spent three years at Barksdale AFB, LA., as an Operations Intelligence Officer.

In 1991, he was selected for the Air Force's Foreign Area Specialist Program, where he was sent to the University of Kansas to pursue a Masters' Degree in Russian and East European Studies. Upon its completion, he was stationed at the Pentagon for three years as an area analyst for Russia and Central Asia, with a one year posting on the National Military Joint Intelligence Center.

In 1997, Marty volunteered for a three-year, career broadening assignment as an ROTC instructor at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colorado. Upon its completion, he moved back to Colorado Springs where he, his wife Renae, and their four children live.

